English: "to-worship"

Arndt and Gingrich Lexicon

προσκυνέω impf. προσεκύνου; fut. προσκυνήσω; 1 aor. προσεκύνησα (trag., Hdt. +; inscr., pap., LXX; En. 10, 21; Ep. Arist., Philo, Joseph., Test. 12 Patr.) used to designate the custom of prostrating oneself before a person and kissing his feet, the hem of his garment, the ground, etc.; the Persians did this in the presence of their deified king, and the Greeks before a divinity or someth. holy; (fall down and) worship, do obeisance to, prostrate oneself before, do reverence to, welcome respectfully, in Attic Gk.

I have underlined 15 lines, in the Concordance lines, that clearly illustrate this meaning. Note that this verb only occurs once in a church letter.

I CORINTHIANS 14 CT

24 But if all might-be-prophesying, but someone unbelieving or a layman might-come-in, he-is-being-reproved by all, he-is-being-examined by all,
 25 The hidden-things of-his heart are-becoming manifest, and thus having-fallen on his face he-will-worship the God, reporting that certainly the God is among YOU.

The word ΠΡΟΣΚΥΝΗΤΗΣ
 (proskuneetes)

English: "worshipper" occurs only once, in John 4:23.

JOHN 4 CT

22 YOU yourselves-are-worshipping what YOU-are not knowing-absolutely: we ourselves-are-worshipping what we-are-knowing-absolutely; because the salvation is out-of the Jews.
 23 BUT an hour is-coming and now is, when the authentic worshippers will-worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father also is-seeking the ones such-as-these worshipping him.
 24 The God is spirit, and it-is essential the ones worshipping him to-be-worshipping in spirit and truth.

Bowing in worship, "demands visible majesty before which the worshipper bows." See the Theological Dictionary of the New Testament, Vol. 6, p. 765.

There are no instructions in "church" letters for "Christians" to worship. KJ uses "worship" for several Greek words; all incorrectly.
